MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Courtesy Calls on Senators Orrin Hatch (R., UT) and Chic Hecht (R., NV), and Representatives Matthew McHugh (D., NY), Robert Kastenmeier (D., WI) and Dan Daniel (D., VA) by the DDCI

1. On Tuesday, 19 February 1985, I accompanied the DDCI on courtesy calls on Senator Hatch and Congressman McHugh. The meeting with the Senator took place just outside the Senate Chamber, and consisted of a short exchange of amenities. The DDCI invited the Senator to call on him at any time. The visit lasted about ten minutes. The meeting with Congressman McHugh took place in his office. This visit was also brief and consisted of amenities and one brief mention of an individual both men knew. This visit lasted about fifteen minutes.

2. On Tuesday, 26 February 1985, I accompanied the DDCI to visits with Senator Hecht, Congressman Kastenmeier, and Congressman Daniel. The Hecht visit lasted about 25 minutes. In addition to the usual amenities, the Senator asked where he should visit. A trip to NPIC was suggested as an addition to a list he already had. The Senator and the DDCI reminisced about intelligence operations [redacted] during the 1950's.

3. The Kastenmeier visit lasted about 35 minutes. In addition to the amenities, the conversation covered the Spanish and Polish PNG cases, and Mr. Kastenmeier's past and possible future concern with legislation affecting intelligence matters.

4. The Daniel visit lasted about ten minutes and concentrated on the HPSCI hearing on the next day, Wednesday, 27 February 1985. Mr. Daniel asked if we were recruiting enough people and said he would raise this matter at the hearing. The DDCI said our problems were in getting good people.

5. All of the meetings were pleasant, well received, and left standing invitations for the Members to call on the Agency for assistance.
